Songwriting/Piano/Voice

This class teaches how to combine the art of songwriting with piano and voice. I will focus more on chording, but will also educate on how to read music as well. This class will be for the artist who desires to learn an instrument in order to facilitate their creative gift of expression through songs. I will teach the basics of songwriting, song structure, and importance of melody and harmony. The point of this class is to not only build confidence in self-expression, but connect these three dots, to make room for that expression. Of all the classes offered at Tradewind, this is the class most unique to our studio.

MORE ON this SONG WRITING/ PIANO/ VOICE class:

Learn to we express Your Thoughts, Emotions And Stories In Your Own Songs so that others really feel and understand what you want to say in your music.

- Develop Your Own Authentic And Unique Songwriting Style so that you have your own recognizable, desirable sound.
- Learn how to compose Your Songs, and structure them correctly.
- Generate Lots Of Different Songwriting Ideas so you have several great and appropriate directions to complete the songs that you've already started.

While the primary focus will be on Piano and Songwriting, Vocal coaching will be included as well. The point isn't to be the best singer, but to be able to sing your own song with confidence. The goal of this class is to write, play, sing and RECORD an original song every six months.
